

Amid the falling snow

How i remember sleepless nights
When we would read by candle light
And on the window pane outside
A new world made of snow

A million feathers falling down (ahhhh)
A million stars that touch the ground (ahhhh)
So many secrets to be found (ahhhh)
Amid the falling snow (ahhhh)

Maybe I am falling down
Tell me, should I touch the ground?
Maybe I won't make a sound
In the darkness all around

The silence of a winter's night (dah dah...)
Brings memories I hold inside (dah dah...)
Remembering a blue moonlight (dah dah...)
Upon the fallen snow (dah dah...)

Maybe I am falling down
Tell me, should I touch the ground?
Maybe I won't make a sound
In the darkness all around
All around

(I close my window to the night)herrer (ahhh)
(I leave the sky her tears of white)herrer (ahhh)
And all is lit by candlelight
Amid the falling snow

And all is lit by candlelight
Amid the falling snow
(Dah dah)

Dah dah.....
Falling snow
